GAVE SALT TO SEINERS.*Sch. Vera Fell In with Fleet Off Whitehead, N. S.*Reports Vessels as a Whole Have Been Doing Well.

Sch. Vera, Capt. William H. Goodwin, which arrived from a Cape North shack trip this morning, brings some good news from the Cape Shore.

The Vera on last Thursday came upon about 25 of the fleet off Whitehead, N. S., and working on fish. He could not remember all the vessels which were there, but went on board of some, and the captains told him that as a whole, the fleet had done well.

They said they had been on fish there for three days, and on the day before the Vera came along, several big hauls had been made. Schs. Lena and Maud and Annie Greenlaw, the captain said, had over 300 barrels each of salt mackerel and he gave each of them a supply of salt.

Sch. Madonna had made a big haul the day before and sch. Monarch had 110 barrels salted. The schools were working to the eastward and the vessels were working along with them.

June 26

SALT BANKERS SPOKEN.*Some of the Fleet Had Found Good Fishing.

Capt. Alfred Green of sch. Flirt reports speaking the following of the salt bank fleet: Sch. Hazel R. Hines, 200,000 pounds; sch. J. J. Flaherty, 200,000 pounds; sch. A. E. Whyland, 170,000 pounds; sch. Mabel D. Hines, 150,000 pounds; sch. Athlete, 100,000 pounds; and sch. Senator Gardner with 200,000 pounds.

Capt. James D. Goodwin of sch. Ella M. Goodwin reports seeing a large number of the salt bankers on the "Patch," 50 miles east of Scatteri. Some had done well on the Magdalen baiting and up to recently had been picking up some fish, but at present were doing poorly.

June 26

HAS TRIP OF SHAD.

Sch. Lillian, one of the seining fleet, is at Boston this morning with 175 barrels of fresh shad, the first of the season.

That the fishermen of the present period, as a class, are a thrifty and saving body of men is becoming plainer and plainer every day to the casual observer. The present season has given more ample evidence of this than any other for a number of years. The evidence is found in the deposits in the Cape Ann Savings Bank, and the Gloucester Safe Deposit and Trust Company and the saving department of the City National bank. For the benefit of depositors who may not receive their money until that time, the first mentioned institutions are open every Saturday evening, and the Saturday evening just past afforded a good opportunity to watch and draw a line upon the existing conditions. Several persons who watched the stream of people passing in and out of these savings institutions remarked upon the fact that a great many of the depositors were fishermen.

With the present success of the mackerel fisheries, there is a great deal of money kept moving. The fishermen receive their checks or money and it is noticeable that the proportion of those who seek to separate themselves from their money by visits to liquor saloons and questionable resorts are remarkably few.

During the past few days, there has been a large fleet of vessels in, among them many mackerel catchers, which has naturally left a great many men on shore for a few days. The "Fishermen's Corner," as it has come to be called, at the head of Duncan street, was crowded with men, each day and evening, and it was remarkable that of all the men who were at that point, during the hours of the day and evening, not a single one could be found under the influence of liquor.

Take last Saturday night, for instance, with such a large number of fishermen on shore, the police did not have a street disturbance to contend with, only three persons were arrested for drunkenness, and two of those were men who came here from Beverly Farms with the express purpose of getting their Saturday night ration of liquor.

The Fishermen's Institute on Duncan street has been crowded with fishermen during the past few days, and it has been noticeable that the visitors were genuine fishermen who visited the place for the attractions which it held for them, superior to the gilded liquor saloon.

Such a condition is remarkable, and gives a serious setback to all would-be sensational writers who would picture the fishermen as a reckless, liquor drinking spendthrift, living from hand to mouth, spending today without any thought of the morrow.

NOT YET SETTLED.*Authorities Not Decided on Fate of Sch. Fannie E. Prescott.*Salt Mackerel of Seized Craft Sold for $1235.

The salted mackerel, amounting to 130 barrels, on board the Boston fishing sch. Fannie E. Prescott, recently seized for alleged illegal fishing inside the three-mile limit, was sold yesterday at Halifax, under an order from the court. Capt. Henry Atwood, agent of the vessel was present, but did not bid. The fish were bought by N. & M. Smith of Halifax for $1235. No word has yet been received from Ottawa as to the disposition to be made of the vessel.

June 26.

SUCCESSFUL LAUNCH.*Sch. John Hays Hammond Gracefully Leaves the Stocks.

The handsome new schooner John Hays Hammond was launched yesterday forenoon from the yard of Tarr & James at Essex. The launch was one of the most successful ever made from the yard, the craft being launched upright and gliding to the water as gracefully and easily as could be wished.

Capt. Lemuel E. Spinney, the owner of the craft, was accompanied to the launching by a large party of friends. No ceremony marked the launch, but the large party on board fully enjoyed the trip down the ways and into the water.

Among those on board were Capt. and Mrs. Spinney, Mrs. Alonzo Smith, Mrs. Benjamin Pine, Capt. Jerome McDonald, Capt. Peter Grant, and many others.

The craft was towed to this port, and Capt. Spinney will now fit her out for fresh halibut fishing.

Sch. John Hays Hammond is one of the finest fishing vessels ever built. She is of McManus design and embodies many of the ideas of her owner. All who have seen her are delighted with her appearance. She is 116 feet over all, 24 feet, 6 inches beam and 11 feet, 8 inches depth.

June 26.

WITH A RUSH.*Swordfishing Season Open with Many Arrivals and Good Trips.

The swordfishing season has opened with a rush. Yesterday the Motor reached T wharf with 42 fish, the first of the year, and they brought 14 cents per pound. This morning an even half dozen of the "swords" are there with 299 fish and the price was from 9 to 11 cents per pound. This means a good stock for each vessel.

June 26.

Good Stock.

Sch. Senator, Capt. George Marr, stocked $2900 as the result of her recent halibut trip, the crew sharing $73.55.

June 27.

TWO MORE FINE FARES.*Schs. Annie Greenlaw and Shenandoah from Cape Shore.*Sch. Manomet Has Another Good Netting Trip at Boston.

The Cape Shore fleet seems to be in no hurry about coming home, and it is beginning to be thought that all of them have not got as large hauls as they were credited with at first. It was evident that many of the fleet are chasing the fish far down beyond Canso, and it looks as though every skipper is determined to get as big a trip as possible before leaving the fish and starting for home. This, in a measure, probably accounts for the slowness with which they are coming along.

This morning two fine, large Cape Shore fares are at Boston, sch. Annie Greenlaw, Capt. George G. Hamor, with 330 barrels of salt mackerel and 20,000 fresh mackerel, and sch. Shenandoah, Capt. James C. Gannon, with 300 barrels of salt mackerel and 150 barrels of fresh mackerel. The latter craft has been well to the eastward and her gasoline power probably helped her along the homeward road.

Capt. Wallace Parsons of sch. Ingomar, which arrived at Boston yesterday, from the Cape Shore, with a big fare, reports that some of the vessels of the Cape Shore fleet did not have 100 barrels when he left for home.

Schs. Lizzie M. Stanley and Mooween are home from out south to refit.

The fare of sch. Ingomar sold to the L. Pickert Co. of Boston yesterday at $11 per barrel. The Ingomar got 15 cents each for the large and 7 cents for the medium fresh mackerel.

This morning schs. Annie Greenlaw and Shenandoah sold their fresh ones at 16 cents each for large and 8 cents for mediums.

Very few of the Cape Shore seiners have been reported in Nova Scotia ports the past week, so it is believed that they are having good weather down that way.

Sch. Manomet, Capt. William Price, of the netting fleet, is at Boston from the southward this morning with 3000 large fresh mackerel.

Sch. Grayling, Capt. Joseph Smith, was at Newport yesterday with 4300 large fresh mackerel.

Reliable advices to Gorton-Pew Fisheries Co. this forenoon, from Campobello, report lots of mackerel schooling on Grand Menan bank.

MACKEREL IN THE HARBOR.*Local Traps Began to Take These Fish Monday.

The first sign of mackerel in this harbor was seen on Monday, when the Nelson trap took 400 fish. Yesterday the Douglass trap took five mackerel and the Nelson trap, in two haulings, got 70 fish.

Bait at Boothbay Harbor.

The Greenlaw traps at Boothbay Harbor, Me., wire that they have 6000 bushels of fine bait.

June 27.

GOOD STOCKS.*Vessels Are Making the Biggest Kind of Money at Present.

Sch. Slade Gorton, Capt. George E. Heckman, stocked $8200 as the result of her southern and Cape Shore trips, the crew making the fine share of $196.69. This puts Capt. Heckman, who is one of the hard workers of the fleet, right up in the rank rank.

Sch. Thomas S. Gorton, Capt. William H. Thomas, stocked $3019 as the result of her recent Cape Shore trip, the crew sharing $76.51.

Sch. Susan and Mary, Capt. George Tufts, stocked $1890 as the result of her recent Cape North shack trip, the crew sharing $74.

June 27.

CAPLIN HAVE STRUCK.*Sch. Maggie and May Gets Fine Baiting at St. Pierre.

Caplin have struck in in goodly numbers at St. Pierre, Miquelon, a telegram from Capt. Alex McEachern of sch. Maggie and May of this port Tuesday stating that he had taken a big baiting there on that day. This will be good news for the salt bank fleet as it insures them a good bait supply for quite a while.

Good Money in Swordfishing.

Sch. Motor of this port, which arrived at Boston Tuesday with the first swordfish fare of the season, made a big stock, the crew sharing $86 each for their two weeks trip. On the swordfish fares landed yesterday, the crew of sch. Hattie F. Knowlton shared $73, those of sch. Shepherd King $72, those of sch. James S. Steele $50 and those of sch. George H. Lubee $50 each.

June 27.

BIG SHACK FARE.*Sch. Onato Arrived Yesterday with 200,000 Pounds Fresh Fish.

Sch. Onato, Capt. J. Henry Larkin, arrived yesterday with a big shack fare, probably the eargest of the season, 65,000 pounds of salt fish and 135,000 pounds of fresh fish, 100,000 pounds of the latter being hake. The stock will be a large one.

June 27.

FROM CAPE SHORE.*Sch. Ingomar at Boston with Fine Fare of Mackerel.

Sch. Ingomar, Capt. Wallace Parsons, arrived at T wharf, Boston, this afternoon with a fine fare from the Cape Shore, 330 barrels salt mackerel and 21,000 of fresh mackerel.

June 27.
